

4/9/09

The City of Galion is currently under a boil advisory. As a precaution, city residents are advised to use boiled or bottled water for drinking, cooking, dishwashing and hand washing. Water should be boiled for 5 minutes before use. The boil advisory may be lifted as early as Friday morning. Stay tuned to local TV and radio stations for more information.